Texas is well represented at the 2011 National State Officers Conference in Bellville, Illinois

State Regent Carolyn Malik with our Texas State officers are joined by newly elected state officers from across the nation at the 2011 State Officers Conference in Belleville, Illinois July 14-17. The National Board hosts this conference biennially providing new state officers tools and guidance like state chairmen and district deputies receive at the state organizational meeting. Also attending was National Director, Olga Samaniego, El Paso. Concerns and goals of the state courts including those of today's church and society as well as issues that affect the well-being of women and children were discussed.
