- What happens if National dues are not paid on time?

If dues have not been received within 60 days of the bill, the National office will notify the State Regent and the National Representative that a specific court's dues have not been paid.

- ✓ The State Regent will notify the local court and the District Deputy within 15 days of the National notification.
- ✓ The District Deputy will verify within 30 days with the local court and the State Regent that the dues have been paid.
- ✓ If dues have not been submitted by then, the District Deputy and the State Regent will consult with the local court Regent to verify the status of the dues payment and determine the course of action that might be needed to ensure that the dues are paid.

CONVENTIONS and WORKSHOPS

- Are State Workshops and Officer Training for court officers only?

No - Summer Officer training sessions are intended for the purpose of all court officers learning the responsibilities of their job and being provided the most current data provided by the State Court. Any member may attend to learn the latest in Catholic Daughter policies and procedures to help ensure that your court is running smoothly.

Texas hosts several Spiritual Enhancement Workshops/Retreats annually and ALL members are encouraged to attend for Unity, spiritual growth and it is one way to help communicate project information with each other and share ideas.

FINANCE

- Do District Deputies have to oversee both financial reviews for their assigned courts? Do they have to sign the audits?

No, District Deputies need to be at one of the two reviews done annually and if they are not present at the review, the District Deputy does NOT sign the review form.

- Please review the video clip found on our website for conducting a financial review.
